

Clarifying & Funneling Questions

1. Which states have the largest vulnerable populations in need of additional medical support during flu season?
 - a. Do certain states have a higher percentage of elderly or chronically ill individuals compared to others?
2. What is the historical influenza death rate in each state, and how does that connect to the vulnerable populations?
 - a. How have the influenza death rates changed over time?
3. How many people in each state have received a flu shot, and what does the breakdown look like by age and other factors?
 - a. Do flu shot rates tend to be lower in rural states compared to urban ones?

Privacy and Ethics in Health Data and Staffing Decisions

- A. What are the privacy and ethics laws around collecting, storing, and analyzing health data in each state?
- B. Are there specific rules we have to follow when handling sensitive health data, especially for vulnerable populations?
- C. Are there any ethical concerns in using flu data to make decisions that could affect patient care in different areas?